Student Council Activates Student Body

"Tiger Power" buttons, seen while students were eating breakfast in the redecorated cafeteria, delivering Santa's mail, and donating to the Peace Corps, expressed the pride and enthusiasm of this year's Student Council. The Executive and Activities Boards sponsored these projects as well as "Don Sharpe Day". Under President Jack Zouhary, Student Council supervised Club Day, pep assemblies, the book store, intramurals, and the Inter-Club Carnival. The dedication of the student leaders sparked pride in every TAD.

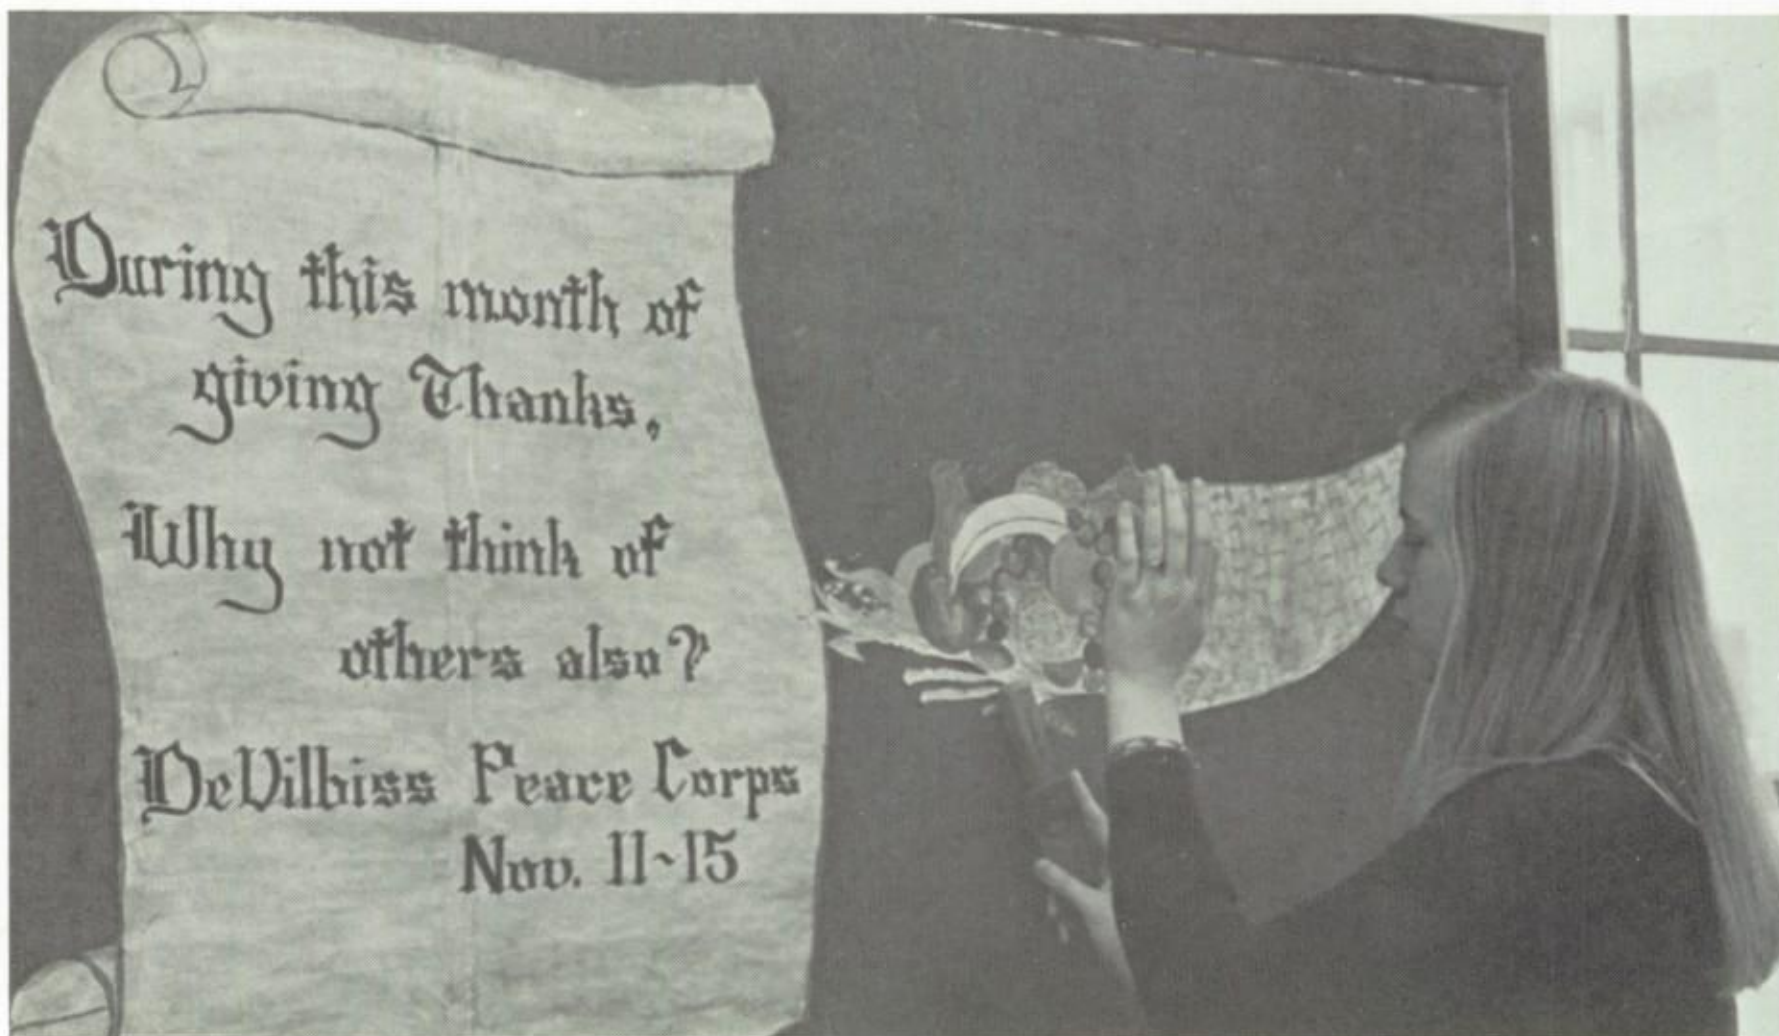

Sue Spengler, Awards Commissioner, and Karen Franklin, Publicity Commissioner, post publicity for magazine drive.

Commissioners Jim Lapp, Finance; Becky Blunk, Social Service; and Bev Ness, Organizations; record the treasury balance, pack food for a Christmas basket, and lead the discussion at Club Presidents' Council.

Karen Franklin, Publicity Commissioner, assembles the Peace Corp bulletin board outside 122.

Kelegougan Claims DeVilbiss' Sister School

"Pennies for Peace Corps," raised by TADS, built a school in Kelegougan, Togo. The $1,000 collected during Peace Corps Week made possible this Student Council project. Monday's bakesale led the way to a Battle of the Bands on Friday with "The Caretakers" and "Chairmen Mao's Peace Corps Band". Saturday featured an open in the girls' gym. The Togian School will receive $850 of the money while the remaining money will be used in another project. The money goes to buy materials and the townspeople provide the labor to build the school. November 11-15 was truly a week for being thankful.

Peace Corps canisters were at each lunch line during the week.

The concert featuring the "Caretakers," and the bakesale made $880.

Spirit Committee Creates "Laugh In"

"Laugh In" at DeVilbiss? Sure enough, that is what the Spirit Committee produced. Original "Laugh In" skits were presented at all the basketball assemblies. In addition, the committee also presented skits for Donald Sharpe Day. As a group, they attended the Central football game, where they threw suckers to the fans. They painted signs encouraging TADS to attend cross-country, track, and swim meets, as well as basketball and football games. To raise money for these signs, they held two bake sales, and sold "Tiger Power" buttons. Through this committee spirited students organized and promoted enthusiasm and spirit in the entire student body.

Doug Morris celebrates "Happy Hours".

Pat Liddell, Curt Black, and Sandy Mitchell head Spirit Committee.

Ernie Worman, Rick Greenwald, and Jim Black, perform a Red Rose Tea commercial.

Curfew Hampers

Change and enthusiasm characterized the 1968 DeVilbiss Homecoming. September 20, the first Homecoming Friday without a crowning assembly, found seniors demonstrating in the courts, students attending a make-shift assembly after school, and TADS cheering at the afternoon football game. The half-time activities of the game featured our marching band, cars and trucks decorated by school clubs and organizations, and the crowning of Marsha Covrett as queen. The excitement of the game's finale, in which Mel Gaines scored with just seven seconds remaining, and a Homecoming victory, carried through to Saturday night's dance. "Tiger Safari" invited students into the tropical jungle of the cafeteria for an evening of hot excitement, curfew, and dancing under the stars.

Senior Sorelles show their spirit by decorating the car of Carolyn Schmertz.

This year's Homecoming court included Debbie Adams and Sue Figlarz.

The band and cheerleaders await the arrival of the team.

Homecoming Activities

Phil Sussman tops off the crowning of queen Marsha Covrett.

The Homecoming court is completed by Sue Spengler and Sue Morrison.

Co-captains Larry Armstrong and Bob Boynton lead the Tigers on the field and to a Homecoming victory.

Mickey Benadum and Debbie Bouck serve Charlie McDanials, Randy Gibbs, and Pam Hull punch at "Tiger Safari".

Cheerleaders Call For T.D.'s, Victory, And Sportsmanship

"Sock it to 'em Tigers. Go! Go!" The cheerleaders and Tigerettes aroused the fans at games and assemblies with their new shakers and nine new cheers. The girls appeared at all home games and a majority of away games. Their new adviser, Miss Romino, travelled with them and trained them during practices three times a week. Under the direction of Captain Marsha Covrett they sold "Tiger Victory" tags, programs, reinstated the pep club for basketball season, and decorated a bulletin board each month.

Cheerleaders proclaim "Tigers are great".

Tigerettes: Gail Sinner, Robin DeVries, Patti Mostov, Nadine Adamson, and Cheryl Liber, cheered at wrestling matches.

D.H.S. mascot surveys the game.

Varsity cheerleaders Barb Dunlap, Marsha Covrett, Beth Robinson, Cindy Davis, and Kathy Petros, raise enthusiasm with "Two Bits".

Maccinnachy Square comes to live with the help of the orchestra.

Andrew MacLaren (Keith Vandivort) consoles Fiona (Nancy Rath) and two friends (Rich Grafing and Ben Wendell) after Tommy's departure.

Ken Skalski, Student Director, gives Jack Zouhary some ideas for capturing the character of Mr. Lundie.

Tommie Albright (Marty Britsch) meets his fiance, Jane Ashton, (Mary Blazic) as Frank (Lee Lake), the bartender, looks on.

Meg Brockie (Sandi Mitchell) tantalizes Jeff Douglas (John Pancratz) in her shed.

Students And Faculty Capture The Fantasy of Brigadoon

Sounds of bagpipes filled the auditorium as "Brigadoon" came to life on the DeVilbiss stage. This small Scottish town of Brigadoon appears only once every one hundred years. Over two hundred students and fifteen faculty members co-operated to present the musical. The hard work of the committees and the careful budgeting of funds made possible a financial success. During the seven weeks of rehearsal, the students of D.H.S. saw sets and props in the halls and heard the sounds of "Brigadoon" throughout the school.

BRIGADOON

Pat Long applies a costume beard to Jack Zouhary.

Usherettes and Pitband perform to the delight of the anticipating audience.

"Joshua's End" acts as a mecca for hippies and far-out people.

Acts at Joshua's included Dave Pancratz, Jan Kaplan, and Brent and Brenda McGraw.

DeViltries Plays To Sell-Out Crowds

Preparation for "DeViltries '69" began last spring with the selection of the Steering Committee. Throughout the summer, Nancy Rath, General Chairman, and John Pancratz, Student Director, wrote the script and Randy Ritchie arranged the music. The "Undergraduate" is the story of a college boy from a wealthy family who becomes a "hippy" in dress and ideas. He spends much time at "Joshua's End", a coffee house. Entertainment presented there included Joshua himself singing "Get Ready", tumbling acts, dancers, and musical selections, including two classical guitar numbers. When a telegram announced that Thurston's parents were coming, his room mate, Scott, realized that he might lose his inheritance unless he changed his appearance. With the help of Ginger, Sara, and a haircut, Thurston retained his inheritance.

National Honor Society Recognizes 58 Seniors

After using red roses for induction ceremonies for many years, the Induction Committee of the National Honor Society found that the yellow rose is the official flower of the society. At the fall induction, the old members received the new inductees, bringing the total membership to fifty eight. Reverend Herto spoke on the merits of today's youth. The National Honor Society again offered its tutoring service to students seeking aid in science, English, languages and math. A Christmas Window of a lion and a lamb for peace represented the group. The National Honor Society members upheld the four ideals of the society: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

Miss Molnar, adviser, plans the spring induction.

Quill And Scroll Holds Induction During DeVilbiss Week

Staff members of both Prism and Pot O' Gold not only studied journalism but applied the knowledge in their publications. Those who performed in an outstanding manner received the pin of Quill and Scroll and the honor of belonging to the international honorary for journalists at an impressive induction service in the auditorium during DeVilbiss Week. The assembly featured a speaker on photography, a vital part of the publications world.

Honor Society officers preside over meeting during Senior Study.

Miss Bloom and Mrs. Berger, Advisers, discuss membership requirements.

Mike Glassman tutors Alvin Miles as a service of the group.

Rotating Editors

Variate Prism

The pictures in every issue, the goal set by the Prism staff, delighted both staff members and TADS. A Polaroid Camera provided the staff with pictures for each of its eleven issues. Editorials on court privileges, smoking, courtesy and other issues confronting today's youth highlighted the second page along with a regular poetry column. The sports news was written by Penny Senecki, the first time in many years it has been written by a female. During the second semester, members of the staff took turns as editor of the paper. The "Prism Power" drive sold one thousand subscriptions. Many copies were sold for 25¢ on Prism Wednesdays in room 115. Prism exchanged issues with Start, Sylvania, Scott and other area schools.

"Prism Power" campaign subscribed 1,000 TADS.

Bette Booth, Vicki Grant, and Jan Kaplan look over the proofs before typing.

Advisers, Mrs. Hart and Miss Bloom, look over the paper.

Amy Sattinger and Kathy Hrobak work, as Editors, on the copy for the next issue.

Helyn Baker and Teena Schwartz search the files for copy ideas.

Students read the Prism bi-weekly and enjoy the Prism breakfast.

Pot O' Gold Processor Revolutionizes Routine

Prints constantly on demand by section editors for deadlines . . . a Kodak Electromatic Processor to the rescue! Five girls printed pictures easily and quickly with the $500 machine. Two hops featuring "Jello" helped cover the cost of the new machine. Ads sales, amounting to $2000, were the greatest in the book's history. The size, 240 pages, was also the largest. While not selling ads, the staff was busy decorating a car for the homecoming parade, planning four "Tigers Love Their Pot O' Gold" promotion assemblies, and distributing new, color, wallet-size underclass pictures. Eight staff members also traveled to New York City for the Columbia Yearbook Convention where the book received a first place rating.

Service Groups Perform Essential D.H.S. Tasks

"I'll take a couple of blue books." The stationer's desk girls supplied students with paper, pens, notebook paper, and cough drops. Athletic office girls sold the newly-priced 75¢ game tickets in the cafeteria. Filing, answering the phone, and typing were also their responsibilities. The counselor's office depended on its girls to deliver summons and register attendance. Five visual aids assistants delivered all films as well as responding to all SOS calls on equipment. The nurse's aids kept ice and bandages in stock, while helping record sick students and taking temperatures. No one left or entered the library without being checked by a library assistant. The stage crew worked day and night handling the lights and curtains for all events in the auditorium.

The Band Dances And Struts To "Joshua"

"Joshua" and other musical favorites rocked Page Stadium as the band performed at all home football games. They marched in the Veteran's Day Parade, while proudly displaying their new band and majorette uniforms. In February, they entertained the eighth graders and their parents at Eighth Grade Orientation Night. All activities were not musically oriented, however, since they also held a picnic in the spring and swim party. To finance their activities, they sold candles, fruit cakes, and held a tag day.

Halls filled with excited TADS as the Choir carolled through the halls singing "Silent Night", "The Little Drummer Boy", and other Christmas favorites. They earned the distinction of being the best choral group at the Art Museum Choral Festival in February. Their concerts included the Northwest Choral Contest, a concert for the P.T.A., and appearances at local churches. Mr. Baggs, the new director, formed a new choral group, The Madrigal Singers. After a special audition, the top performers became part of the group. They sang the Alma Mater at Donald Sharpe Day assembly. The Choir also sponsored a bake sale and a hop.

Sounds of the DeVilbiss Orchestra augmented the Christmas spirit at D.H.S. The P.A. System carried the music of their annual Christmas Concert live from the auditorium. The string orchestra showed its proficiency at Maumee Valley High School in October as it captured first place in the string division. They entertained the Band and Orchestra Parent's League in February with a concert in addition to the Spring Concert. The Orchestra earned a second-place rating at the state contest in Cleveland. The string quartet received a second-place rating in competition at the University of Toledo in February. To raise money for their trips to competitions, the Orchestra sold fruit cakes for the Christmas holiday.

Tigers Run, Hope, Score

Score tied 12-12, third down, and seven seconds to play, DeVilbiss faced an inspired Macomber defense. The Tigers chose Mel Gaines to carry the final eleven yards. The exciting junior tailback wormed and danced, changing direction in mid-stride, through the pack and into the end zone.

When pre-season sessions arrived, the Tigers were physically prepared. Weightlifting in the winter and summer practice strengthened the team. A new coach, Dale Pittman, and co-captains, Bob Boyton and Larry Armstrong, determined to build the team mentally. They distributed equipment and uniforms and called a meeting. Hair was the focal point of discussion and several long-haired Tigers were shorn. Pride was instilled with new football T-shirts and confidence mounted with three pre-season victories. The giant Tiger anxiously awaited the official's whistle to attack and maul its opponents.

The scoreboard predicts a Tiger victory as Jerry Greiner adds the point after touchdown.

Tigers Splash To Individual Victories

DeVilbiss splashed into the swimming scene this year, becoming the first public school in Toledo to enter swimming competition.

Tigers swam in style with their orange Hawaiian print trunks. Coach Jerry Mash and his swimmers earned $400. for support of the team through a spaghetti dinner. Each swimmer paid a $15 membership fee, plus paying for pool time, equipment, and meals on the road.

Tiger tankers swam four home meets at the downtown YMCA and seven out of town. At 6:00 each morning captains John Curphy and Westy Rupp supervised conditioning at the downtown YMCA.

Tiger Harriers Chase St. Johns

Determination and perserverence propelled the DeVilbiss Harriers to another winning season. Steve Mostov and Andy Hausman, co-captains, led the Tigers to dominate the Ottawa Park Course in five regular season meets. Coach Tapola's workouts were not easy. An average practice consisted of a jog to Toledo University where the harriers ran five consecutive miles and ended with the run back to school. The freshman team repeated as city champs. Jeff Schnell set a new freshmen record with a 10:57 two mile. Walt Churchill posted a 9:56 two mile at Cleveland St. Josephs, fastest time ever for a Tiger Runner. Three all-city runners return next year with hopes of capturing the city crown.

Draheim's Defense Motivates Tigers

Bouncing back from a slow start, DeVilbiss became a strong contender in the City League. Paced by seniors Ed Greunke, Jeff Aubry, and Rusty Ballmer, the Tigers won four home games and six away. New head coach Walter Draheim schooled his players in a solid defense with arduous practice. Determination and skill brought exciting moments to Tiger Basketball.

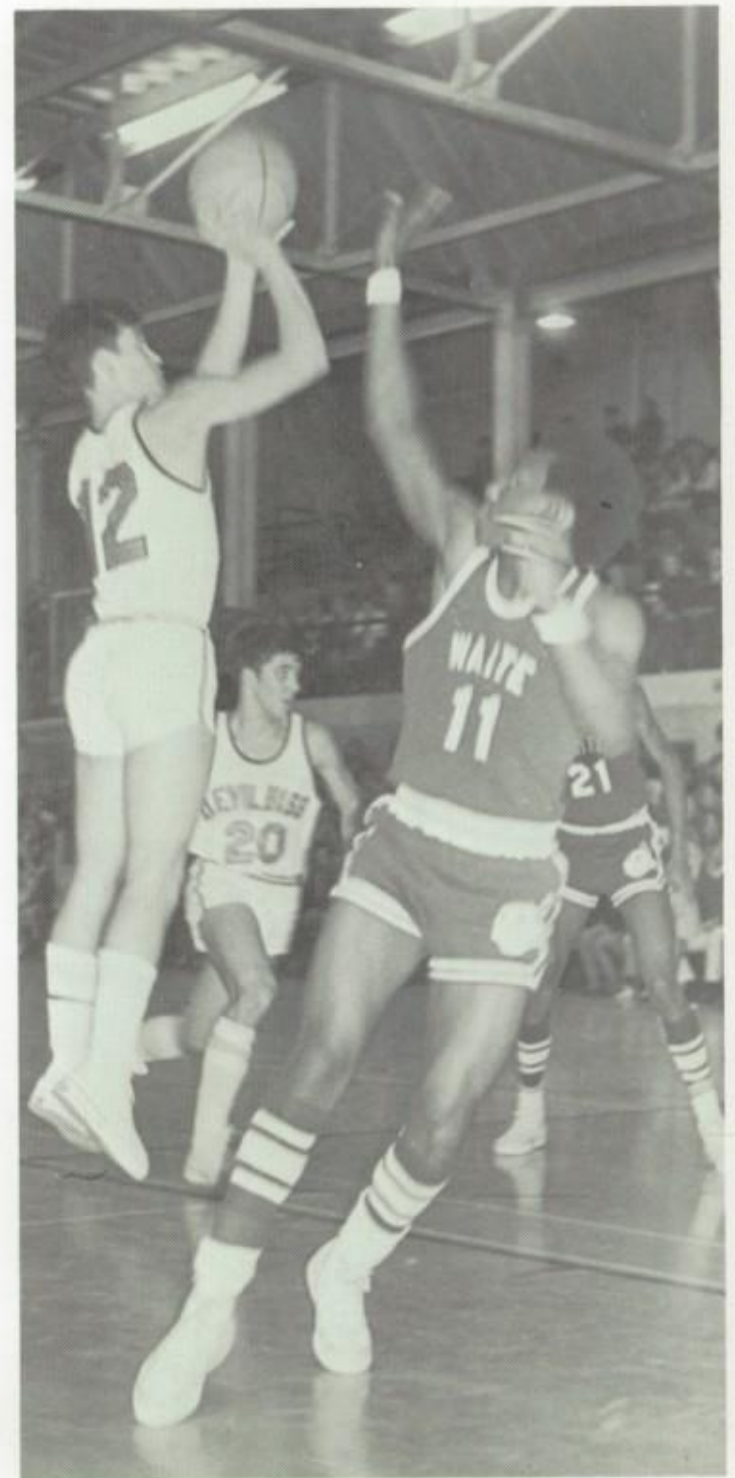

DeVilbiss toppled Rogers 72-61 with fast breaking guards and tough inside shooting by Bob Benninger.

In an exciting contest with Woodward 6-4 forward Ed Greunke fired a jump shot in the closing seconds giving DeVilbiss a two point edge.

In a tilt with state-ranked Libbey, DeVilbiss guards Jeff Aubry and Mel Gaines combined for 28 points in a losing effort as the Cowboys rallied to win 47-45.

Wrestlers Excel In Strength, Skill, And Strategy

Gary Ferguson, 112 pound wrestler, muscles his opponent.

Wrestling demanded sacrifice for DeVilbiss grapplers. Fighting fatigue and hunger from endless diets to make weight, the Tigers compiled a respectable five wins and three losses.

Coach English expected perfection from his wrestlers. Isometric pushups, sprints, and walking stairs on hands prepared the Tigers for their grueling six minute matches.

DeVilbiss took fifth place in the City tournament. Gary Ferguson and Pat Digugliemo both finished runners-up. Bruce Wilson and Pat Digugliemo qualified for the Sectional meet resulting from their fine performances in the regional meet. Captain Curt Davis recorded the most pins for the year with nine.

At the wrestling banquet it was announced that the team voted Tom McMann the most improved grappler and Larry Armstrong the team's most valuable wrestler. Pat Digugliemo was named to captain next year's team.

Girls' Intramurals Include Ten Sports

"One of the best intramural programs I've ever seen," said Miss Romino, new physical education teacher. Many students participated in ten girls' intramural sports: soccer, archery, tumbling, bowling, basketball, volleyball, badminton, softball and tennis. All girls interested in a particular sport met after school one day a week for six weeks. Then the girls met in competition with teams from other area schools for a sports day. The archery and volleyball teams both placed second in the city and the basketball team fourth. The high individual scorer in bowling was Jenny Vogtsberger with 164.

Trackmen Seek Successful Season

Coach Tapola returned a promising group of trackmen. Organized practice began in early February, although many individuals started training back in September.

Mickey Benadum, Curt Davis, and Emil Sotnyk provided great depth in pole-vaulting. DeVilbiss also carried depth in distance running. Walt Churchill, Dale Burtch, Dave Diller, Jim Lesage, and Hal Hayes ran both the mile and the two mile. In the middle distance races the Tigers bolstered Steve Mostov, Andy Hausman, Tom Wylie, and Beno Flath. Fred Powell handled sprints while brother Jerome Powell excelled at the long jump. Matt Sperling and Bob Benninger competed in the high-jump.

Baseball, Golf Teams

Overpower Opposition,

Strive For Victories

New baseball coach, Jim Fox, greeted eleven returning lettermen with fresh ideas. Starting in January players began morning workouts. A wooden mound was constructed to give pitchers indoor practice. The Tigers exercised and worked on plays in the gym. Coach Fox instituted a Junior Varsity team to develop his younger players.

Coach Fox felt his team would improve over their fourth place finish last year. Returning this year are most of the players who sparked last year's upset over Rogers. Rogers was defeated only twice last year, once by DeVilbiss and once in the state championship final game.

Golfers held an elimination tournament in the Fall of 1968 to determine the 1969 golf team. Captain Tom Berger, Mark Tincher, and Terry Green competed for top brackets. During the winter months golfers improved their skills by driving plastic golf balls in the gym. With the arrival of March, Coach Karl Huls led his team outdoors with expectations of improving last year's third place City League finish.

Established mainly for the purpose of recruiting a three man chess team, members of Chess Club became engrossed in the game of mental concentration, mathematical calculation and counter positioning. Meetings served a dual purpose by teaching this universal language to new members and providing an opportunity for old members to recreate chess matches for concentrated study. DeVilbiss players matched strategy and skill with Woodward, Anthony Wayne, Evergreen, Divine Word, and other area high schools. As an inspiration to the all male chess team and means of promoting interest in chess, members invited Robin Getter to become their chessmate mascot.

Debutantes

To promote interest in the literary arts Debutantes members attended plays at Doerman Theater, viewed exhibits at the Toledo Museum of Art, and observed presentations by the Toledo Players. Meetings, held every other Tuesday, provided an opportunity for the girls to discuss in depth poems, stories, and articles they had read. ## Equestriennes

Prepare For Horse Show

Girls interested in horses and horsemanship make up the special interest riding club of Equestriennes. A girl must ride a minimum of twice a month to become a member. Lessons, provided once a week at Howard's Stable for those that do belong, gave the girls the opportunity to increase their knowledge of horses. At meetings the president showed movies about riding techniques and the proper use of saddles and bridles. Equestriennes were sponsors for the Child Care Foundation Benefit in October. They delighted four children with presents for the Faculty Christmas Party. Members worked diligently all year round to prepare for their annual Horse Show in the spring.

To raise money, they toured a mortuary, held a hop in the Girls' Gym, and sold their newspaper. ## FTA Distribute Holiday Favors

Again this year Future Teachers of America attended the Area Workshop and the Metropolitan meetings held twice each month. The faculty enjoyed sweets at FTA members kept them supplied with holiday favors. They aided the teachers at the semester break by grading and filing papers. Invited speakers in the teaching profession highlighted FTA's meetings. Members rounded out their activities by holding a progressive dinner and giving their annual party for the children of St. Anthony's Villa.

Gavelers Gains

From Group Discussions

Gavel club, made up of both members from Start and DeVilbiss, is an affiliate of Toastmasters International. At each meeting various members gave speeches making use of good speaking skills such as eye contact, voice modulation, and gestures. They initiated a program of group discussions to promote improved discussion techniques. To celebrate Halloween, the members held a costume party. Other activities included attending a hockey game, a swimming party, and selling peanut brittle and pecan fudge.

Hi-Y Works Together With Percleans

Members of Hi-Y, the only boy's club participating in the Inter-club Tug O' War, pull their club to victory.

Along with their newly acquired sister club, Pericleans, members of Hi-Y sacrificed some of their spare time to entertain the children of the migrant workers. The boys played football with them while the girls prepared a snack. By successfully selling mints, Hi-Y members were able to spend a day at Cedar Point. They also went to Camp Storer, and the Youth in Government program in Columbus. Other activities included a private dance in December called "Mistletoe Mischief" at the Copa Room of the YMCA, a swimming party with their sister club, and several hops. The year closed with a Senior Party.

I-Da-Ka Adopts "Tot"

Winning the Inter-club Tug O'War was a happy beginning for I-Da-Ka. Their turnabout, "Flake Out", at the Toledo Savings Bank added to their pleasure. Both members and their mothers attended the Founder Day's Dinner at Covenant Presbyterian Church. New members provided a typical gym class skit for entertainment. Along with Pay-a-el-sa, I-Da-Ka adopted Tot, a little Vietnamese boy. They sent health kits to other Vietnamese children. I-Da-Ka selected the popular "Charlie Brown" theme for their Christmas window. Throughout the year, the club raised money through candy, rummage, and bake sales for the Debbie Gordon Scholarship Fund.

Kiowa Corresponds With Servicemen

Kiowa brightened teachers' and office desks with St. Patrick's Day favors. A Christmas Party and gift exchange helped members enjoy the season. The girls kept D.H.S. students supplied with football tags and the walls covered with spirit signs. They acquired two servicemen in Vietnam to whom they wrote letters and sent gifts. Twice a month the girls engaged in bowling at the Colony Bowling Alley. They held a Dads' and Daughters' Bowling Tournament.

Classical League Ventures To State

"Sod Cliff and the Folks" entertained D. H. S. students under the sponsorship of JCL. This assembly made it possible for the members to charter a bus to take them to the state convention at Columbus. Their entry in the displays was a scrapbook which chronicled the events of the year. Springtime found JCL enjoying a party for senior members and their parents entertained by Zafira Tenedyos. The ancestors of Zafira lived on the island of Tenedos where the Greeks hid while waiting for the Trojans to take in the horse.

NFL Members Excel In Competition

Anyone can become active in the National Forensic League without waiting for club day. The club provided the opportunity for members to compete in weekly interscholastic debates or speaking events. Boys and girls extemporaneous speaking, humorous declamation, oratorical declamation, dramatic declamation, and original oratory are the six categories of competition. Outstanding participants were: Dorothy Roof in debate, Cindy Palmer, individual events, Tim Keller, humorous declamation, and Karen Sarno, dramatic declamation. Members winning local competition have the chance to go to state. The NFL of D.H.S. became involved in the Glass City Tournament.

Omena Aura Designs

First-Place Window

Hoping to stimulate pride in school appearance, members of Omena Aura adopted a "keep the school clean" campaign by creating posters designed to discourage litterbugs. Projects included adopting a Vietnamese child and entertaining the children from St. Anthony's Villa. "Visions of Sugar Plums" held at Luke's Barn at the Lucas County Recreation Center provided an opportunity for members to be together at Christmas and enjoy the yuletide gaiety. Activities such as swimming parties and hayrides complemented community service. Omena Aura's first-place Christmas window portrayed 15 symbols of the season.

Ora-I Becomes The 31st Club

This year Ora-I Social Service Club added its charter to the others. A bake sale at Joseph's Supermarket in the Colony brought a big profit for Ora-I. Members pleased small children at Mercy Hospital by taking them scrapbooks, coloring books, and reading books. Despite the weather, the girls held their hayride in December at Pearson Park. Other activities included a private, open, bakesale and carwash. Ora-I members took an enthusiastic interest in supporting various sports by putting up posters. They supported the P.T.A. and Men's Club, too.

Volunteer Services

Any person who takes an active interest in medicine has the opportunity to become a member of the Para-Medical Careers Club. The club's projects included tours of Toledo Hospitals' surgery, x-ray, and emergency sections, and other informational institutions pertaining to medicine. Reports on volunteer service gave members the chance to see how they could do their share. All but two members worked in area hospitals. Together with another club, they formed a theater party to see "Finian's Rainbow". Selling candy after school helped members raise money for their medical scholarship. ## Pay-A-El-Sa Plans "Pay Day"

Pay-a-el-sa members celebrated "Pay Day" by holding a spaghetti dinner, donating quarters to the D.H.S.'s Peace Corps Program, and giving favors to teachers. Members kept spirit high by decorating the goal posts for Homecoming, and the Central, Bowsher, and Libbey games. While washing car windows at Westgate, Pay members urged voters to cast their ballots on election day. Books sent to Maumee Valley Hospital and care packages to boys in Vietnam helped to brighten those lives. Being in charge of a social or service project gave the girls a taste of authority. The girls acted as guides at the Open House.

Pericleans Usher At Lynro

Once again Pericleans triumphed as the Best Literary Club. They upheld this honor by attending concerts at the Art Museum and highlighting their meetings with fine arts programs. They ushered for "The Fantastics" and "My Fair Lady" at Lynro. Under the direction of Mr. Blackwell, members distributed literature for school levy support throughout the city. A pot luck dinner for new members, swimming party with Hi-Y and a Christmas Party and gift exchange provided entertainment for the girls. The club packed school kits for children of Spencer Sharples, baked cookies for the State Hospital, and donated to the Student Council Scholarship Fund.

Philo Mouso Attends Operas

Members of the new special interest music club, Philo Mouso, appreciated the varied advantages of the music world. The club learned more about music through concerts and operas which they attended throughout the year. In November they participated in the program, "Out Music for the In People". During Christmas they entertained children at the Lutheran Orphanage and elderly people at an old folks' home. To further their Christmas enthusiasm, they held a caroling, snack, and dance party.

Having a third place honor at Bowling Green, Mona Abraham brings honor to her club.

Socialites Sell Popcorn Balls

Members held their hayride this year at Shady Lanes. The flu epidemic ruined Socialites' plans to carol at an old folks home. They were able, though, to enjoy a Christmas Party. The girls highlighted the year by their private dance on March first. For service projects, they contributed to the Linda Walden fund, made spirit tags and banners, and gave toys to children at Christmas. The sale of popcorn balls, suckers, baked goods, and used clothing increased Socialites treasury.

Members increased their interest in the arts by attending the play "Great God Brown", and movies; "2001 Space Odyssey", "Gone With the Wind", and "Funny Girl". Wintertime found them shoveling snow. They cheered some families of the community by sending Christmas cards. They made spirit signs for the Boys' Gym. Quill and Dagger challenged Forum to a basketball game and wrestling match. Many members of QD were wrestlers.

Junior Sorelles Kidnap Seniors

Members of Junior Sorelles attended ballets and concerts. They also visited the Magic Light Show at the Toledo Museum of Art. From time to time guest speakers entertained the girls through their individual programs. "Romeo and Juliet" at the Cinema provided a cheerful smile and a tear. Every member of Senior Sorelles attended "Brigadoon". They heard the Choral Society perform the "Messiah", Northwest Region Concert at Start, and saw the ballet, "The Sounds of Music". During Christmas they braved the cold and brightened the court with an elaborately decorated Christmas tree. Using the "Laugh-In" series as an idea, they produced a skit at the Bowsher assembly. The club raised money by selling orange popcorn balls and by washing windows at Hampshire Heights and Kenwood Gardens.

Sentier Nouveau's Booth

"Big Success"

Co-ed membership made STNV the second largest club at D.H.S. A scavenger hunt was so successful that it will become an annual event. Some of the boys posted a board for track and field. Spirit signs placed in the halls for football, cross country, basketball, and track produced enthusiasm. STNV placed second in the annual Christmas window contest. Their booth at the Inter-Club carnival consisted of a duck shoot and balloon bust. A bake sale at the Lion Store gave members a chance to earn money.

Lettermen representing the football, baseball, cross country, and wrestling teams inspired Talisman's interest in athletics. As a favor to the custodial staff, underclassmen assisted in removing traces of victory and defeat following basketball games. Guided by Jim Muhn and faculty adviser, Tex Riley, senior members contributed to both school spirit and community pride.

From hayrides, sleigh rides and splash parties to trophy case cleaning, bakesales and providing Christmas dinners for a needy family, Tri-D met each season with social celebration as well as community service. Donating toys and time, the girls sponsored a "Stuffed Animal Drive" to extend goodwill and cheer to the Miami Children's Home. During football season, members maintained school spirit by designing support tags and a lively series of bulletin boards. Tri-D treated the teachers to a bit of Halloween tradition by preparing favors for them.

The annual fourth year French banquet brought all its students to the Northwood Inn on February 28. Many students viewed "Le Tartuffe" by Moliere. Ann Manix won first place last spring in the freshman level of the French Poetry Contest for Northwestern Ohio held at Toledo University. She was a student of Mrs. Cowell. Three students planned to study in France this summer.

This year saw the furnishing and completion of the library. Students found in the library many fascinating slides, films, newspapers, magazines, records, and books written in Chinese, Russian, and English.

Courses included Mandarin Chinese Language, Chinese History, Asian Studies, Russian Language, and Russian History. Mr. Klee, the director, attended a national convention of the Council of Social Studies in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Klee assigned creative projects to his second hour class. These projects, made by the students, included clothing, pottery pieces, songs, paintings, kites, firecrackers, and many more. # Experiments Enchant Science Students

Dissections added zip to the science department. Mr. Mill's physiology classes dissected fetus pigs while Mr. Rogolsky's and Mr. Tischnea's biology classes dissected worms, grasshoppers, and clams. Blood tests also were taken.

Mrs. Molnar's AP classes, known as the popcorn sessions, made a crystal building and a menorah of glass tubing and a bunsen burner. Mr. Benson's chemistry students fretted for hours at the board over problems.

Teachers Change Phys Ed Department

Forward rolls started sophomore girls in tumbling. A mini trampoline added challenge to the more experienced girls and the advanced tumbling team. Original routines, given in groups and solos, in modern dance and tumbling, entertained classmates. The sophomore girls bruised shins while playing field hockey in the fall. Winter and spring sports included golf in the mirror room, archery, badminton, volleyball, and softball.

Freshman girls coordinated tap dances to popular television commercials. Track, in the fall and spring, limbered the girls up to play volleyball, softball, and kickball.

Wrestling, boxing, track, volleyball, softball, speedball, badminton, tumbling, and many other sports constituted the year for freshmen and sophomore boys.

Many DHS girls and two Bowling Green girls, Dianne Robinson and Karen Pease, were assistants for the regular gym teachers.

Students Broaden Their Knowledge Of Tools, Typewriters, And Textbooks

Mr. Cowell instructs Steve Eller how to use a lathe.

Vocational training received increased emphasis. Mr. Ludlum taught five classes of electronics and electrical survey to one hundred students. New textbooks with chapters on first aid and bone set-ups brought delight to the home nursing class. The home economic courses combined practicality with study. Speakers came from McCall's, Patricia Stevens, Yardley, and churches to instruct the girls on fashion, make-up, and marriage. Demonstrators came from the gas and electric companies. The girls visited furniture and appliance stores as well as a bank and a day nursery. The machine and wood shops benefited from new machinery and blueprints from the drafting classes.

Members of Cooperative Office Education and Distributive Education attended classes in the morning and worked in outside businesses in the afternoon.

Business students added a project to their regular classes. They collected money for articles for three orphanages in Vietnam. In return, they received slides of the children opening their gifts.

Robin Schwartz and Debbie Hoppe pin a leaflet on their C.O.E. bulletin board.

Art, Drama, Speech, Music Stir Creativity

Innovation in the curriculum allowed two new art courses: sculpturing and art appreciation. Kathy Valois and Joanne Holden brought home a first and third from the annual Downtown Artists Contest.

New classes were also added in the speech and drama departments. The new debate class studied the techniques of debate and debated second semester. The advanced drama class performed "The Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge," "Sacrifice," and "Tell Tale Heart." They also gave a puppet show fourth hour to the nursery schoolers from McKinley.

Competition placed DHS's choir at the top in the Ensembles with Nancy Rath, Derrick Roberts, Sheila Cook, Steve Daugherty, and Tony Quinn winning superior ratings in the solos.

Football games, assemblies, concerts, and a banquet with the orchestra, constituted the year for the band. The orchestra won an excellent rating for State Competition.

Curriculum Adjusts To Special Abilities Of Students

With the overhead projector, Mrs. Quick explains phonetic spellings to her students.

New textbooks and an additional teacher challenged and encouraged the eighteen students of the hearing impairment classes. Mrs. Quick taught driver's education to four interested pupils. All students attended regular classes of art, gym, and biology. The teachers used special equipment so the students could visualize the difference in many word usages in the English grammar. Vicki Miller and Cheryl Knott took their noon studies to tutor these students.

Mr. Paluszak directed a new program this year, adjusted curriculum. Nine freshmen and one sophomore participated in this experimental program. For all required subjects, the students used special texts and progressed at their own rate of speed.

November 5th Marks Realization Of Goal For Board Of Ed.

Passage of the 5 mill operating levy for Toledo Schools was the result of tense, widespread campaigning. Gold and black "Keep Schools Open" posters became familiar sights in Toledo. ## Don Sharpe Day Climaxes Tribute

"Good morning. We're beginning the 5th week of the first semester. We'll be on A schedule." So rolled the familiar voice of Mr. Donald Sharpe over the PA system for seven years. During those years, too, he was a familiar sight walking down the halls, surveying the order in the cafeteria, talking with students about the building. Members of Student Council, as they worked in 122, turned to him, their adviser in the adjoining room, for help and guidance on all kinds of problems. To honor him and to show their appreciation for his unfailing assistance, they declared December 19 "Don Sharpe Day." Upon his arrival at school that day, Mr. Sharpe found students and teachers wearing "Don Sharpe Day" tags. Mr. Sharpe and his wife attended an assembly in his honor in which the Spirit Committee awarded him a medal, on which the words "Our Hero" were boldly printed, and the Student Council presented him with a plaque. Students staged "This is Your Life, Mr. Sharpe" which followed him from babyhood to his days at DeVilbiss. Several speakers from the faculty told of their feelings of respect and admiration for this man.

Visiting Committee Evaluates School Program

All members of the DHS faculty participated in evaluations of their individual departments. The North Central Association of Secondary Schools, which accredits secondary schools and colleges in a nineteen state area, controlled this survey. After teachers had completed their reports, DeVilbiss was visited by an evaluating committee. They evaluated all facets of the school's curriculum and activities. Schools are usually surveyed every seven years. DeVilbiss has been evaluated only once before. Mr. James Mercer was chairman of the Steering Committee in charge of arrangements.

Energetic Officers Lead 69'ers In Memorable Year

A Donkey Basketball game is only one example of an ingenious senior activity this year. Senior boys battled faculty members on donkey back in the game which took place in February. To raise general student interest, seniors promoted glossy black and white "Give a Damn" buttons. Val Barros, a Youth for Understanding representative from Chile, entered second semester. Seniors staged a sit-in in the south court because they wanted a pep assembly for Homecoming. As a result, the administration granted an assembly after school on the day of the Homecoming game.

The traditional senior trip was more than a success. A whopping number of students signed up to spend their spring vacation in New York City. The Mother's Tea and Dad's Dinner recognized parents. Seniors experienced many "lasts": a last DHS football and basketball game, a last pep assembly, and a last stroll in the court. With the approach of Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, and Graduation, seniors had mixed emotions. They felt exuberance for having reached their goal — graduation, yet they felt dejection for having to depart from what had grown so familiar.

Class of '70 Accepts The Challenge of The Changing Times

Remember? Cafeteria cleanup . . . 1776 . . . PSAT scores . . . Hester Pryne . . . Washington, D.C.

Academically, the big change for juniors was a full year course in American History, with civics being required the senior year. A junior class spirit committee also was new.

Class activities began with an open in the girl's gym. The Junior Boys' Mothers' Tea followed with a large number of mothers attending. Projects included class of '70 t-shirts, patronages for the musical and Deviltries, and cleaning out the trophy cases in the front hall. Class rings arrived on time to the pleasure of everyone. They concluded their year with the J-Hop, "All You Need Is Love."

Five hundred twelve juniors descend upon the cafeteria one hundred eighty days of the year.

Individual And Class

Activities Involve Sophomores

As sophomores, the class of '71 met a new challenge: organizing and functioning as a class. During the week of October 28, sophomores plunged into politics (high school variety) and for a week the cafeteria blossomed with campaign banners, students sported support tags, and twelve anxious candidates practiced their speeches. The sophomores elected Joe Jones, as president, James Booker, as vice-president, Pam Palmer, as secretary, and Rick Meyers, as treasurer, to lead their class.

The biggest class activity of the year was Sophomore Dance. The selection of the sub-chairmen in late February allowed over two months for planning and preparations for the May 9th dance. Robin Adams and Keith Vandivort, the general chairmen, chose the name "Barefoot in the Park". The decorations committee transformed the cafeteria into a park in the spring.

While many participated in class activities, individual activities were also an important part of sophomore life. Sophomores enthusiastically supported their classmates on the Junior Varsity basketball and football teams, while other sophomores wrestled, swam, and ran. A new J-V sport this year, coached by Mr. Fox, gave sophomores the opportunity to participate in J-V baseball.

In addition, the class of '71 made its mark in the class room, on the stage, in student government, and even in the cafeteria. Sophomores were particularly famous for the many surprise birthdays they sponsored.

For the class of '71, it was a year to join, to participate, and to become involved.

Freshmen Elect Their First Official

Discovery is the key word to freshman experiences. Four hundred ninety-nine frosh became actively involved in the daily routine of DeVilbiss High School. Academically, Orientation, Geography, and Orientation Civics were new courses. Four boys, eager to participate athletically, joined DeVilbiss' first swim team. Others showed their enthusiasm by playing football, basketball, wrestling, and track. Twenty girls displayed their spirit by trying out for cheerleading, others joined the pep club.

They also participated in the tap dancing course required of freshman girls. All freshmen enjoyed co-ed volleyball. Special musical interests encouraged them to take part in the junior band, freshman orchestra, and freshman boys' and girls' choruses. Others exhibited their talents in the musical and in DeViltries. Freshmen showed responsibility by electing a representative to guide them through their first year. Enthusiastically they signed up for clubs, commissions, and committees.

to the new graduates

As parents, neighbors, and friends we naturally have a special interest in the quality of our schools.

No community is better than its schools, and no school is better than the determination and willingness of a community to support standards high enough and broad enough to meet tomorrow's levels of need, both vocationally and for citizenship.

*To Robin,
Why Do I Love You?*

*I love you,
Not only for what you are,
But for what I am
When I am with you.*

*I love you
Not only for what
You have made of yourself,
But for what
You are making of me.*

*I love you
For ignoring the possibilities
Of the fool in me
And for laying firm hold
Of the possibilities for good.*

Why do I love you?

*I love you
For closing your eyes
To the discords—
And for adding to the music in me
By worshipful listening.*

*I love you because you
Are helping me to make
Of the lumber of my life
Not a tavern
But a temple;
And out of the words
Of my every day
Not a reproach
But a song.*

*I love you
Because you have done
More than any creed
To make me happy.*

*You have done it
Without a word,
Without a touch,
Without a sign.
You have done it
Just by being yourself.*

*After all
Perhaps that is what
Love means.*

Secret Darkroom Society

"The times they are a changin' ", and so society and its stage are changing. We progress with a will to improve, down a road unrecognizable to those before us. We decorate our bodies differently from year to year but the souls within us cherish the same basic ideals of mankind. We will change and be changed, We will grow, we will seek, and change shall find us.

We will go forward into new adventures and meet them with the knowledge, courage, and self-confidence that we found at DeVilbiss.
